

The Martin Buber-Carl Rogers Dialogue: A New Transcript with Commentary

By Rob Anderson

State University of New York Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 152 pages. Dimensions: 8.8in. x 6.0in. x 0.5in. A corrected and extensively annotated version of the sole meeting between two of the most important figures in twentieth-century intellectual life. This is a sensitive, penetrating, and illuminating interpretation of a very significant dialogue. Throughout the commentary the authors provide reasonable interpretations grounded on previous transcript errors or on external historical evidence they have uncovered. These new interpretations add significantly to our understanding of the meanings possibly intended by the participants and the meanings possibly constructed by the audience. The style is clear, precise, stimulating, and provocative. -- Richard L. Johannesen, Northern Illinois University The Martin Buber-Carl Rogers Dialogue offers a corrected and extensively annotated version of this central text in human sciences. Focusing on the sole meeting between these two central figures in twentieth-century intellectual life, Anderson and Cissna return to the original 1957 audio tape and to a variety of other primary sources as they correct and clarify the historical record. The authors highlight hundreds of errors, major and minor, in previously distributed and published transcripts--beginning with the typescript circulated by Rogers himself. They also show how an accurate text enhances our understanding...
