O. , 2004. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)56201698 Subject: Terrorism -- Prevention -- Government policy -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 9 Let me take a moment to describe to you how we operate. A po-lice officer checks the National Crime Information Center, NCIC database, during a routine traffic stop and may be directed to con-tact the TSC for assistance in the identification process. We run the name through our database to determine if the person is a posi-tive match. If positive or inconclusive, we pass the information to the Federal Bureau of Investigations Counterterrorism Watch, which then coordinates with the local joint terrorism task force or the case agent, who then directly responds to the police officer. For example, two individuals were arrested for speeding. We were contacted and assisted in identifying one of these individuals as a known or suspected terrorist. This encounter significantly im-pacted a long-term investigation confirming the immeasurable value of bringing local law enforcement into the war on terrorism. The...
