Bart Learns a Hard Lesson about Fire Danger is a story about a character named Bart. He and his friends went for an afternoon hike into the forest and ended up in a scary situation. Bart is very careless when using matches to light a camp fire. He refuses to listen to his friends warning about fire safety. They explain how quickly a fire can out of control, destroying the forest and harm the animals. Bart gets angry and sets out alone, deeper into the woods. He starts another campfire to make something to eat and forgets to put the fire out while he takes a nap. He wakes up and finds himself trapped; his camp fire had gotten out of control. What happens to him and his friend caught in the fire makes interesting reading especially to see how Bart learns his lesson about fire safety. If you and your child love to read together, then you are going to love this! It is a short, simple story that should hold a kid's attention long enough to make the point. The colorful, cartoon-like illustrations complement the text. This book features bright, full-color layouts with the convenience of the Kindle reading experience with text pop-ups! This bright picture children's book is perfect for bringing up the subject of fire safety with your little ones. Use the story to talk to your kids about this crucial issue. This book provides fire safety messages in a way that is not scary to them. The storybook format...
