Excerpt from Toronto Hydro Electric System, Labour, 1915: Statement of the Toronto Electric Commissioners, November 2nd, 1915; Majority Report of the Arbitrators Under the Industrial Disputes and Investigation ACT; Minority Report of the Arbitrators Under They are of the opinion that many of the recommendations of the majority report have been based upon an insufficient realization of local competitive conditions, of the economic conditions prevailing through out the country in consequence of the war, of the liberal treatment heretofore extended to the employees in respect of wages, holidays and general conditions of service, and of the rights and interests of the customers of the System, and of the ratepayers Whose credit has been heavily pledged in order to establish the System they administer. The terms of the minority report include numerous and weighty objections to the recommendations of the majority report. These objections represent the reasoned convictions of a member of the Board of Conciliation whose duty it was to weigh judicially and impartially the whole of the evidence submitted to the Board. The presumption of self-interest, therefore, that might conceivably be raised as against the views of the Commissioners does not attach to these impartial and judicial conclusions. The Commissioners, however, desire to draw particular attention to the scale of wages now paid by them as compared with the scale in force in the year 1912, and as compared with the scale now in force in the case of its local commercial competitor. In five representative classes of employees, namely - first class linemen, meter installers, wire men, cable men and first class operators, the scale of wages now in force runs from 13...
