When an egomaniacal leader enters a peaceful world, promising salvation from a disease that he himself created, seventeen-year-old Nina is the only one in her village who can see his cruel purpose. While those she loves are seduced into following the magician down a twisted path of lies and destruction, the seer does everything she can to try to turn her family and friends back to their loving Goddess Inana. As Nina finds herself facing an impossible task, a spirit voice comes to her as her guide. She struggles to discover the identity of this mesmerizing spirit. His is the voice of hope and wisdom. She knows that somehow he holds the key to saving her people. Everything depends upon Nina s courage in the face of the magician s escalating power. Elevating himself to the title of sorcerer, Oscuridad s influence spreads quickly. He hypnotizes the people of Nina s village with poisonous promises. Accompanied by a mysterious black wolf, the sorcerer drains the villagers of their treasures while claiming it is pleasing to their goddess. He won t be completely satisfied until he also has Nina for his own. It is of little interest to Oscuridad that she detests him. As the sorcerer s power claims more and more villagers lives, Nina realizes that she is running out of time in which to save her village and discover the owner of the spirit voice she has grown to love.
